Safe harbor

Certain statements in this presentation concerning our future growth prospects, financial expectations and plans for navigating the COVID-19 impact on our employees, clients and stakeholders are forward-looking statements intended to qualify for the 'safe harbor' under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in such forward-looking statements. The risks and uncertainties relating to these statements include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties regarding COVID-19 and the effects of government and other measures seeking to contain its spread, risks related to an economic downturn or recession in India, the United States and other countries around the world, changes in political, business, and economic conditions, fluctuations in earnings, fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, our ability to manage growth, intense competition in IT services including those factors which may affect our cost advantage, wage increases in India, our ability to attract and retain highly skilled professionals, time and cost overruns on fixed-price, fixed-time frame contracts, client concentration, restrictions on immigration, industry segment concentration, our ability to manage our international operations, reduced demand for technology in our key focus areas, disruptions in telecommunication networks or system failures, our ability to successfully complete and integrate potential acquisitions, liability for damages on our service contracts, the success of the companies in which Infosys has made strategic investments, withdrawal or expiration of governmental fiscal incentives, political instability and regional conflicts, legal restrictions on raising capital or acquiring companies outside India, unauthorized use of our intellectual property and general economic conditions affecting our industry and the outcome of pending litigation and government investigation. Additional risks that could affect our future operating results are more fully described in our United States Securities and Exchange Commission filings including our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2020. These filings are available at www.sec.gov. Infosys may, from time to time, make additional written and oral forward-looking statements, including statements contained in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and our reports to shareholders. The Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statements that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of the Company unless it is required by law.

Client and Analyst feedback has been positive

“ Infosys has been able to continue to provide a full and effective service to Brit Insurance during the Covid-19 lockdown for which we are extremely grateful. The commitment demonstrated by Infosys to its customers during this crisis has been superb and we are extremely grateful for this, Thank you!”

- Dr. Simon Lumsdon,
CIO, Brit Insurance(UK) Ltd.

“ Infosys demonstrated resilience by completing its internal repositioning for the COVID-19 crisis in under three weeks. Likewise, Infosys demonstrated agility by recalibrating its risk posture over a much larger threat surface, given that what had been anomalous behavior, pre COVID-19, was now part of the new normal.”

- Gard Little
Vice President, Global Services
Markets and Trends, IDC

“ It is an amazing achievement that our teams were able to deliver programs and complete all the complex policy migrations, that too 100% virtually, That is a feat in itself. Despite all challenges both NN and Infosys are all facing in these unprecedented times, we are well on track! Big compliments from me to the Infosys team. The Infosys team has gone above and beyond to deliver programs in the conditions that are not straightforward, while demonstrating uncompromising quality and service continuation. I am very happy & grateful for all the effort & professionalism being displayed by team Infosys

- Roland Coppus
CIO Nationale-Nederlanden

“ Thank you Sanjay and team Infosys. You sheer grit and pure spirit to deliver were always your north star until the clocks on June 30th called the day complete. A big thank you to each of you for all you delivered, the lessons learned and the progress we have yet to make in the future.

- Mary Ellen Smith
Corporate Vice President, Microsoft

“ Thank you Team Infosys, for the incredible work done, conducting the transition and moving all applications across Apps and engineering into steady during this period. For sustaining the business with no interruption during the last few weeks. The integrity & professionalism displayed by the teams and ensuring business continuity during this challenging period is commendable. For this I am truly thankful and look forward to greater partnership”

- Tanju Arslan
CIO, BUPA Global
